Things have been ok:

Julie and I have weeded the collection for the year. We have been planning more programs for the spring and starting to plan summer reading already.

We received 2 partnership grants with the Scio Memorial Library 1 grant is for solar eclipse glasses and then a grant with the ACWC to bring digital media to our communities over the summer.

I have to sign and go to a meeting to receive the ACWC grant on

Plans for the spring are as follows.

March 1st cooking class: Enchiladas Rojas

March 8th cooking class: Filipino Chicken Adobo

April 5th: Crafting with Roberta: Junk Journals

May3rd: Crafting with Roberta: Vases

June 7th: Crafting with Roberta: Decorative Boxes

We have some other programs that we would like to put in place such as a magic group the card game for kids we had it awhile ago but then covid so we would like to restart that. Also Julie has a few ideas.

I also found out that we do not need to have a meeting every month have to have 4 meetings a year: they can be when ever so if we would like to move the meetings to once every other month if that would be better, we can do that.
